

7th Annual Princess Tea Fundraising Event

Sunday, September 12th, Grandparents' Day, the Cape Cod Children's Museum hosted over 200 mothers and daughters at Willowbend Country Club in Mashpee for its 7th Annual Princess Tea fundraising event, featuring Pinkalicious!

Five foot tall hot air balloons set the festive, enchanting mood as girls between the ages of one and ten moved between the manicure and craft stations in their princess transformation. The sumptuous buffet included pink milk, pink lemonade and pink cupcakes, and the ice cream dessert bar was a hit! Pinkalicious, performed beautifully by Mashpee High School senior Grace Greenland, engaged young ladies with her effortless smile and readings of the popular Pinkalicious and Goldilicious books by Victoria Kann. Sun and Sea Photography, new to Mashpee, donated their time and talents, photographing the entire event, including an individual photo of each girl that was provided at the end, to commemorate the day!
